

Please keep the "Do not call" list. It's such a pleasure to sit down for dinner with my family and not have to get up to answer to someone that is trying to sell me something that I am not interested in..